

GOVERNMENT LIAISON OFFICER

- The Government Liaison Officer is responsible for answering questions from the membership (verbal or written) within the limits of the officer's job when it concerns Government regulations; advising the membership of pending legislation, court decisions, etc.that affect payroll.
- In order to meet these responsibilities, the Government Liaison Officer will maintain resources of information at the government level. These resources would include, but not be limited to, APA Government Liaison, Federal, State, and Local Legislative changes, publications and newsletters., and will maintain National Membership to have access to all legislative updates
- The Government Liaison Officer has one vote in all elections and Chapter business.